

"They make a bold statement in a crowded room, and people are naturally drawn to them."

David Abella, Roy's Restaurant

Roy's: Graphics Convey a Tasteful Message

Roy's Corporate Executive Chef David Abella frequently hosts cooking tables and demonstrations at various culinary functions and charity events. When challenged by creating a table presentation that best fit Roy's unique Hawaiian Fusion Cuisine, he turned to Skyline for something new, exciting and compelling.

The result is a pair of brilliantly colored banners that reflect the Asian influences found in Roy's restaurants worldwide.

"We have been very pleased with Skyline's depiction of our restaurant through these beautiful banners; they are simply stunning. They make a bold statement in a crowded room, and people are naturally drawn to them," Abella says. "We are now using them throughout the country."
